Redmond, WA – March 23, 2023 – ARCHER® Hotel Redmond strives to make its four-legged guests feel at home. The boutique hotel, located in the heart of the open-air Redmond Town Center with an abundance of walkability and pet-friendly outings nearby, takes pets personal (or pawsonal, if you will). The hotel’s General Manager Scott Scheriff’s dogs Lucy and Kai Lani, are honorary staffers and frequent visitors who have help shape the four-legged experience at Archer Redmond. In honor of National Pet Day in April, the hotel is throwing a big bonus bone with value-added treats and savings, totaling over $150, for travel through September 5, 2023.* Here is what pooches can enjoy, with their favorite humans in tow, when they check in:

- Off the Leash: A pooch-level welcome sign and bowl with water upon arrival for dogs to enjoy as they check in. To tide them over until dinner, Buddy Biscuits are complementary at the front desk.
- In the Dog House (or Room): Once settled, pups will enjoy an in-room bag of biscuits, “Dog in Room” sign for the ultimate privacy, Earth Rated waste bags and plush beaver chew toy from Eastside Dog. Two stainless steel bowls and a Pendleton doggy bed are set up for use during stay to make them feel at home.
- Bonus Treats: The $150 pet fee is waived for travel through the end of September. And Eastside Dog, is gifting Archer’s furry friends a Chuck-It-ball or can of wet food (certificate provided upon check in and redeemable in store).
- Paw Print of Approval: Lucy and Kai Lani have prepared a list of their favorite things to do in the area, including relaxing on Archer’s patio during happy hour, Marymoor Park, best known for its 40-acre off-leash dog area, and a number of breweries and wineries that allow pets. The doggy duo also has favorite picks for hikes, groomers, pet supply stores, nearby animal hospitals and more.
