Perched atop the 22-story boutique hotel, the sky-high venue boasts so-close-you-can-almost-touch-it Empire State Building vistas. With its scene-stealing views of the Empire State Building, Spyglass Rooftop Bar captivates with a contemporary interpretation of 1940 – 1950s New York glamour. Floor-to-ceiling glass doors open to a spectacular seasonal outdoor terrace with plenty of perimeter drink rails for hands-free selfies. A dual Spy Viewer offers a focused bird's-eye view of the iconic 102-story art deco skyscraper named for this magical city. The Back Lounge, with its own festoon-lit terrace and city views, has a dramatic four-panel live-feed view of the Empire State Building and its ever-changing light show.
